SUGAR

Williams, Dimond & Co., in their sugar circular dated April 1, say:

Latest Statistical Position:—Willett & Gray report, by cable, March 24th, U. S. 4 ports in all hands, estimated March 23rd, 129,766 tons against 184,777 tons—same date last year. Six ports Cuba, estimated March 22nd, 248,000 tons against 312,000 tons—corresponding period previous year. United Kingdom, estimated March 20th, 84,000 tons against 108,079 tons—same date in 1933. Total stocks in all the principal countries, by cable, March 24th, at latest uneven dates, 3,472,766 tons against 3,472,856 tons; decrease from last year, 90 tons. Sugar crops of the world, estimated March 24th, total cane sugar production (W. & G.), 4,423,061 tons against 5,562,167 tons—same date previous year. United States beet sugar production (W. & G.), 208,135 tons against 195,463 tons—same date last campaign. Grand total cane and beet sugar, 10,541,196 tons against 9,889,959 tons; estimated increase in the world's production, 651,237 tons.

Eastern and Foreign Markets:—The firmness manifest in the Raw and Refined sugar markets, to which we called attention in our previous circular, has continued without interruption throughout the period under review, although, latterly, perhaps, the demand for the Refined product, while good, has not been on as extensive a scale as earlier in the month just past, supplies throughout the country however, being considered to be below those of last year.

Transactions in Cuba have transpired on a liberal scale at prices indicative of the underlying confidence felt by holders in the soundness of their position, thereby contrasting strongly with the anxiety displayed by them in former seasons to market their supplies in the face of sharp competition from other quarters.

In the East, where a very strong tone to the Raw sugar market with but light offerings is in evidence, according to latest mail advices from New York, under date of March 25th, the trade has been occupied in large measure by consideration of ruling conditions in Cuba, to which may be attributed as LOST WITH THIRTY LIVES.

Associated Press. Morning Service. VICTORIA, April 8.—Wreckage found in Barclay Sound indicates the destruction of the ship Lamorna, running between Puget Sound and Queenstown, with a loss of thirty lives.

The British ship Lamorna, Captain Cormack, sailed from Tacoma, Washington, on February 27 with a cargo of grain for Queenstown, Ireland. She was reported a week later as having passed Tatoosh. The vessel was of 2169 tons.

HE NEEDED THE MONEY.

Halemano was given three months in jail this morning by Judge Lindsay for taking $15 from a Chinese store. It is thought the defendant is not as bright as he might be.

EXCURSION FOR THE EXPOSITION

Secretary E. M. Boyd of the Hawaii Promotion Committee is in receipt today of a letter from the California State Board of Trade announcing that the California Board of Trade is arranging for an excursion to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis.

The party will be composed of prominent merchants, manufacturers and producers of California state. The round trip tickets, first class, will cost $67.50 each. These tickets are good for 90 days and permit of stopover privileges. Passengers can select the return route by any of the direct lines they desire. If they wish to return via Portland, it will cost $13 additional.

The letter says in part: "We will appreciate it if you will be kind enough to promulgate this information to your members and to the members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association. In order for us to make the proper reservations for sleeping car accommodations, those of your citizens who intend taking advantage of this opportunity to join what will probably be one of the finest excursions that has ever left this State, should write us at the earliest moment, letting us know just what accommodations they will desire and should send us money for same, if they simply wish one berth, sending $13.00, if a section $36.00, etc."

The purpose of sending the letter to Mr. Boyd is to try and induce from 15 to 20 representative Hawaiians to join the excursion party. The excursion will leave San Francisco about the middle of May. The date has not been determined as yet.

A SERIOUS OFFENCE.

Deputy Sheriff R. Lane has arrested a Japanese on the Koolau side of the island on a charge of attempted rape. The Jap attacked a Japanese woman. The examination will be held before the Koolau magistrate.

HE SAYS HE SAW THE SAW.

Mrs. F. T. Saunders does not saw wood but according to Jorgen Jorgenson, she can handle a saw to advantage. She used it on him, he claims, so he was at the police station today after a warrant for her arrest on a charge of assault and battery.

CHARGES IN KONA CASE

ATTORNEY MAYDWELL MAKES ACCUSATIONS AGAINST DISTRICT MAGISTRATE ALU—C. J. HUTCHINS SAYS HE HAS ARRANGED TO FINANCE THE KONA SUGAR COMPANY AND RE-START THE PLANTATION IN TEN DAYS.

The Kona litigation has led to charges against Second District Magistrate Alu, of Kona which have been filed with the Attorney General and are referred to in part in an affidavit filed in Judge De Bolt's court this morning by Guy F. Maydwell, attorney for C. J. Hutchins, trustee. Affidavits were also filed against and in support of the motion of W. W. Bierre for an execution against Hutchins, by E. B. McClanahan, J. F. Colburn, and Hutchins. The latter declares that he is able financially to handle the plantation and he made arrangements to reorganize it and have it running again within ten days. Judge De Bolt granted the motion for an execution to issue unless Hutchins files a new bond, allowing him until next Friday to do so, the bond to be for twice the sum of $22,000 for which judgment was issued, in replevin for the Kona railway.

The charges against Alu are in connection with the writ of possession which was served on a Sunday trip of the Ke Au Hou to Kona by Deputy Sheriff Chidlinworth two weeks ago. It was a writ of possession issued by Alu, when an appeal was pending on matters involved in the contest over Kona leases and the railway. The affidavit of Guy F. Maydwell contains the following:

"Notwithstanding said appeal said District Magistrate, one Thomas Alu, at the instance of the manager of the Kapiolani Estate, one John F. Colburn in fraud of the rights of the defendant issued a writ of possession and said Kapiolani estate was on March 28, 1934 put in possession of said mill property and the defendant ousted therefrom."

Maydwell says the writ was issued "surreptitiously and fraudulently without the knowledge of defendant or his attorneys and that said magistrate was misled and deceived into issuing the service." He declares that the writ is void and that a motion to recall it and set it aside is now pending and, he believes, will be granted.

The Kapiolani estate brought the action for the purpose of harassing and annoying defendant, says the affidavit, and contrary to custom brought it before Alu, second magistrate, instead of George Clark, first magistrate "for the reason as affiant believes, because said second magistrate is a man of no legal learning or experience and is easily deceived and imposed upon, and that he was so deceived and imposed upon and induced and influenced to render judgment contrary to the law and the evidence and thereafter to do the wrong and unlawful acts hereinbefore set forth."

Hutchins denies McClanahan's statements that Hutchins cannot look after the property involved in the suit and in his affidavit has the following regarding the plantation:

"He has practically completed a reorganization and that within ten days as affiant believes the said plantation will be in operation and its matters and affairs so arranged that a sugar plantation will be continued upon the properties formerly constituting the said Kona Sugar Company Plantation."

"Affiant says that he is amply able financially to provide for the care of all the properties in controversy in this action and that he will so care for the same so that the deterioration will not be appreciable; that it is to the interest of affiant to provide for the care of such property and that the same will suffer no loss by reason of damage or deterioration."

Judge De Bolt's order requiring a bond of $44,000 from Hutchins in the case of Bierre against Hutchins, replevin, for the recovery of the Kona Railway or the value thereof, a judgment having been rendered for the estate for $22,000. The Kapiolani estate's writ of possession was for lands and property which Hutchins claims to have bought, as trustee for Kona stockholders, in the sale of the Kona Sugar Company.

House has acted in a businesslike way. Now it is up to the Senate."

This morning the House passed on third reading its bill appropriating $10,000 for the expenses of the session, and the bill was duly sent to the Senate for approval. It is the first bill of the session and went through in the shortest time it is possible for a bill to go through under the provisions of the Organic Act. The general salaries appropriations bill, under the members' declared intentions to pass it this afternoon, will have done the same, greatly contrary to the predictions of those who so strongly opposed a special session.

The official copy of the salaries bill was not ready for the House this morning, and after passing the expenses bill the House adjourned to two this afternoon, at which time the members propose to pass the bill. The House will then have no further business until the Senate gives it some.

DARLING, THE MAN WHO IS A DISCIPLE OF THE NATURE LIVING CULT ARRIVES IN TOWN TODAY AND WALKS BARE LEGGED THROUGH THE STREETS—HOW TO BE HEALTHY.

A very original character arrived today from San Francisco on the S. S. Alameda. He is known as the "Nature Man." He says he believes like Joaquin Miller in getting down to nature but the extent to which the Nature Man carries his creed is beyond the bounds of present day conventionalities and would cause the average person to declare him a "crank." E. W. Darling is his name.

Darling believes in wearing not only as few clothes as the law allows but as the climate will permit. He furthermore favors a strict diet of nuts and fruits where they can be secured. Cooked food and meats he eliminates so far as possible, although he does not permit his belief to carry him to the point of starving when he can not secure the articles prescribed by his creed. He will eat meat and he did so on the Alameda when he cannot secure the fruits and nuts that he considers are healthful.

"I have come to the Hawaiian Islands," he said this morning, "for the purpose of experimenting with the fruits and nuts of these islands. I am looking for an ideal spot where I can establish a nature colony. I am going to the Puna District on Hawaii and expect to remain here in the islands about four weeks although from what I have already seen, I think I would like to remain four months."

"My belief is that we should get away from the artificial way of living that is followed at the present time. We should follow the life that was originally intended for us to do, but from which we have gotten away. I believe that we should wear as few clothes as possible. Indeed I favor people going without any clothes at all. I think that we should pay more attention to the physical care of our body. We should cause people to have a true and proper appreciation of physical beauty."

"I am a fruitarian. I believe that we should eat the food that God intended for us. I do not favor the preparation of foods, we should eat nuts and fruits. It is to experiment with the fruit in these islands that I have come here. My idea is to establish colonies all over the world, where the conditions favor it, so that people can visit them and live as long as they wish. I would divide the colonies into three classes, those who would abstain from the use of intoxicants and tobacco while at the colony, those who would eat the food and those who would conform to all the ideas by going naked, within the confines of the colony of course. There is plenty of land in this world where we can secure sites for such colonies. The valleys of the Amazon present many opportunities in this respect and so does Tahiti."

"I am now taking a course in medicine in Stanford University. I am a student and believe in mental cultivation for those who stay at our colonies. I am now in communication with people at the other nature resorts in the country, and expect sooner or later, to establish a central colony."

Mr. Darling has tried his experiments in Southern California for some months. He sleeps out of doors but he carries a tent for protection from the rain and will permit the members of his colony to do so but he does not favor buildings. He wants to remain in the open. Darling states that he pays his expenses by lecturing and taking collections in various places where he goes. The Nature Man is 32 years of age. He was formerly very delicate weighing but 90 pounds but he has since 1925 by his outdoor life and living built himself up to quite robust health. He is above medium height and is naturally tanned by his constant exposure. He wears his hair long and wears a beard. In appearance he is not unlike some pictures of the Jesus Christ. He appears to be very enthusiastic over his ideas. Certainly he has the courage of his convictions for he follows the nature life that he advocates.

The following are some of his precepts and ideas as explained on a souvenir card which he distributes:

Best & rite B & feel.

That's the way to work for real.

Always keep a good reserve

2 this rule u hold yur acry

If U hav ordinary helth and take gd ber ov yurself, (avoiding all akidents & dizees) U may liv forevr in yur fskl body helthy happy & prosperus.

Only modersashun, good judgment & regularity in all things pure & good only.

Get out ov the smoky, dusty krouded city. From tentashun & wearing excitement, free thyself.

Worship no man, book or thing, but the good spirit, the wun universal God whom Jesus & the Bibel & all nature r pointing out 2 us—only God (or Good.)

Gradually tufen yur body (by water & sun baths) til yu kan safely sleep out dore in ordinary weath'r. Liv always in pure out-door air. Eat mostly ov plant food; nuts, fruits, (bananas, persimuns, mangos, apls, melons, &c.)

Visit the tropiks. Quit smoking, drinking, over-eating, fornikaashun, gambling—xtravagans.

10C or eny sum u giv, or send wil help me finish my kollej kourse at Stanford. I'll dress like others while in my klasez.

Darling attracted considerable attention this morning. He wore nothing but a red sweater, and a pair of faded knickerbocker trousers. He was barelegged and bareheaded. He walks very erect and was followed by crowds as he left the steamer.

Darling said that he had not made up his mind as to where he would stop during his visit in Honolulu. He will not stay indoors. He says he will go away somewhere and stay in the open air as he has always done. He will purchase fruit while here and live on that provided he finds it gives him sufficient nourishment. If he finds that certain foods that he starts to diet on are not sufficient, he changes his diet. He says he is going to try eat some poi although his belief is against the use of prepared foods. He prefers food prepared by nature.

Darling expects to give some lectures during his stay in Honolulu. He prefers he says to lecture in the open air.
